The House, at the request of Mr. Foote, gave him the use of their hall on Wednesday evening. His professed object was to explain his course in the U. S. Senate, but instead of doing this, deprived him of the use of his hand, he is he descended to a mere pitiful tirade against various worthy Mississippians ner and Repairer of Plano Fortes. His allusions to Ladies and Gentlemen who may have occaourselves-made in our absence-were sion for his services will please leave their at night repelled by an in a manner orders with Messrs. The news from Nashville fills cur learts with rejoicing. Without the dightest difference of opinion among six States, we are more than ever betastrous assailments of the North. Enquire of Mississippi will avail herself of this bond of Union, whenever she shall determine that the remedy for our well known wrongs cannot be attained in the Union Secession is a mere mat- AND DENTAL SURGEON ter of expediency. It is not a principle which stands foremost in our platform. We shall never secede if the honor and self-respect? Mr. Featheraton well said, he wanted all his State as entitled to under the Constitution -he would take nothing less.

The State Rights Association has been in session every night this week. The veteran chief of democracy, our To Frame A. Woods, James C. Woods, honored Barton, addressed the association on Wednesday night. His able speech will be long remembered. He nobly vindicated the cause of the south, and tore the flimsy veil of Union from the back of Submissionism-an enemy more insiduous than abolitionism itself. The charge of Senator Foote, so indecently made against this worthy man, of attempting, by his devotion to the outh, merely to get his seat in the U. S. Senate, was indignantly repelled, and it was shown by him that his whole course towards Senator Foote had been one of kindness.

Hons, S. J. Gholsen and J. J. Me-Rae addressed the State Rights association last night. We will notice their remarks next week.

A CARD.

Mr. Editor : In the last Wilkinson Whig, article appeared, intended, no doubt, to a criticism of my remarks in reply to the Hon. H. S. Foote, on the Monday preceding its publication. That the editor of a newspaper has a right to criticise a speech deliv-ered in public, and on a public occasion, I do not wish or attempt to deny, but I understand criticism to consist in a comment or ments on facts as they exist, (whether written or spoken) and not a presentation of those facts in a false light, or a wilful per-version of them. My object in taking up the pen in this matter is not, directly or innst the mis-statement of facts contained in the Whig editorial.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, FOR 1850.

"The Book of the Nationa"

THE OLDEST MAGAZINE IN AMERICA. Published by the present Proprietor for Twenty Years. RISTED BY MRS. SANAM J. RALS.

Comparison between "Godey" and the other Philodelphia Monthlies.

In 1849, the Ludy's Book gave 916 page which is 116 more than one, and 148 pages more than the other Philadelplax monthly.-He gave 281 engravings-among which we 20 colored, and 23 full page—which is 136 more than one, and 180 more than the other. We gave, in each number, a piece of music, printed separately on tinted paper, making 24 pages, or 12 pieces in a year. To show the cheapness of the Lady's Book, this same music. if bought separately at the music stores, would cost exactly the price of the whole year's subscription-83 Some of our peculiar Embellishments.

Ladies' Work Table-which comprises every kind of Needlewerk, Embroidery, Kutting, Netting, Croschet, Patterns for Caps, Chemisettes, Children's clothes, Wedding Dresses, In-door and Out-door costumes; Birds of America; Colored Flower Plates; Model Cottages and Furniture; Fashionable do.; Lace-Work; Vignette Plates at the head of articles, etc. etc. All the above are illustrated by engravings.

The Costumes of all Nations, With descriptions by Mrs. Hale. Most of the old features of the Book that were so popular last year, will be retained, and new ones added as they may suggest themselves to the publisher.

A New Nevel, by W. Gilmore Simms, OUR READING MATTER.

We have long stood at the head of the magazine world for our contributions; they are always moral and instructive, and such as may be placed before a family without hesitation. This department is under the control of Mrs. SARAH JOSEPHA HALE; whose name alone is a sufficient guarantee for the propriety of the Lady's Book. We may say the same of our engravings. We will never, as is done by a cotemporary, publish indecent model-artist pictures, such as no parent would allow a child to look at,

Godey's Lady's Book for 1850 shall surpass that of 1849, and exceed all magazines-past, present and to come.
